There will be a guided tour of the house and old Palace and we will be divided into groups.

The tour will highlight the Palace from Medieval/Tudor to the re development by Stephen and Virginia Courtauld in the early 1930s- a Masterpiece of 20th Century design – including a Marion Dorn showpiece rug highlighted in one of last year's TASC talks.

The other part of the day will be a free flow of the beautiful gardens created in the moat of the original castle – famed for its roses – so a perfect time for our visit!
